

A Path Among Flowers – Lyrics, Alan Wright, NEW ZEALAND - 1998

All that I have is wrapped up in you
Our garden of dreams waves in colours of blue
Old memories like shafts of sun-light appear
And high-lights those flowers we both loved so dear.

Let me walk in our garden and smell the dew
A path among flowers will lead me to you
I will gather those petals of sweet words you told me
And trust they will lead to where you will be.

Soft whispered hopes, a garden of dreams,
A climbing plant cascades in soft gentle streams
A pathway that lies between you and me
I'll cherish forever the picture I see.

Let me walk in our garden and smell the dew
A path among flowers will lead me to you
I will gather those petals of sweet words you told me
And trust they will lead to where you will be.
